Premier Brokerage Services, a nationally acclaimed insurance brokerage firm headquartered near Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, is celebrating a milestone of 20 years of excellence in the industry and service to their community. With key values that extend far beyond standard brokerage models, Premier Brokerage has demonstrated significant commitment to both clients and local charitable organizations since its inception in 1995.

Morey Goldberg, President of Rose Glen Advisors, LLC, has this to say about Premier: "Premier Brokerage has been one of our most value-added longstanding partners and contributors. They represent us in a fashion similar to the way we represent our clients - we could not ask for more."

This high level of client and partner appreciation is typical at Premier Brokerage, largely due to the skilled and sincere group of employees that have found fulfilling long-term service within the organization.

"I am extremely proud of all of our staff at Premier Brokerage. It's a privilege to work side-by-side with them every day," says founder Steven Katz. By empowering Premier's employees to make decisions and build one-on-one relationships with their clients, whom they view as partners, the company is able to help them exceed their goals with customized solutions that are tailor-made for their individual needs.

With an emphasis on culture and a dedication to excellence, Premier Brokerage Services stands above the rest; not only by providing first-class service to their clients, but when it comes to community service as well. Steven Katz's history of philanthropy extends over decades, and includes supporting charities such as the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation (JDRF), Ronald McDonald House, Children's Hospital of Philadelphia (CHOP), Susan G. Komen for the Cure, and over 50 other nonprofit charities. He is also a trustee of the Katz Family Charitable Foundation, which supports the formal and informal education of children everywhere, as well as many other causes.

In recognition of his continued service, Steven Katz has been honored with numerous awards since founding Premier Brokerage in 1995, with the most recent accolade being the National Association of Independent Life Brokerage Agencies' (NAILBA) Chairman's Award for service to the organization and community.

This focus on giving back extends to the entire Premier Brokerage staff, who have volunteered steadily over the years for organizations such as Aid for Friends, Cradles to Crayons, Stenton Family Manor, and the Chamounix Mansion, as well as the annual Salvation Army Adopt a Family Program.

Premier Brokerage Services plans to host a private staff appreciation event to commemorate this significant milestone in the company's history and have also announced details for an industry underwriting event in October at their Jenkintown office.
